BURGLARS USE CHLOROFORM.

Enter Two Places on Hill in one of Which Woman is Overcome by Drug.

That the gang of bold, bad burglars is still operating in this section was again demonstrated last night when two places were entered on the hill district and in both instances a little "wad" secured.

One of the places which was the Johnston confectionery store at the corner of Ninth street and Knox avenue, $19 in money was taken. The prowlers escaped without making the slightest noise. Mrs. Johnston who was sleeping on the second floor was chloroformed and the money taken from a dresser in her room. When she awakened this morning the odor of chloroform was still strong. It was necessary to call a physician and at noon she was still in a serious condition. Two roomers who were sleeping on the third floor were not disturbed.

Another residence in the near vicinity was also entered where $35 in money was secured and as before not the slightest trace of the robbers was left behind. It is supposed the same party or parties committed both depredations.

Thursday night Joe. Wheatley who lives on Sixth street hill discovered two men attempting to take his horse out of the stable, he gave chase and the men escaped after throwing several stones at their pursuers, one of which broke a window in a neighboring house. Mr Wheatley did not identify either of the men.

HAZLE BUMBAUGH ENTERTAINS.

Forty Invited Friends Gathered at Her Home in Honor of Guests.

A delightful house party was given last night by Hazel Bumbaugh, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. S Bumbaugh on McKee avenue in honor of her friends, the Misses Etta McNight, Agnes Shriner and Margaret Federman who in company with Mrs. Dr. Phillipps, of Mt Lebanon are guests at the Bumbaugh home.

About forty guests were present including girls and boys who are friends of the hostess Miss Hazle proved herself a charming entertainer and made the evening a very enjoyable one for all present A luncheon was served on the front porch, which was very much enjoyed Mrs Philipps and the young ladies will remain over Sunday.

HUGH PRICE

Today we announce the candidacy of Hugh Price of North Belle Vernon for Clerk of Courts. Mr Price comes before the Republican voters of Westmoreland county with a strong endorsement from the people of this end of the county which should be regarded as one of the highest testimonies of the worth of the man as a citizen and public official. Mr. Price has served one term as county commissioner but was defeated for re-election at the nomination last spring He now asks the support of his party for the nomination next Saturday for Clerk of Courts and if nominated and elected will do all in his power to fulfill the duties of the office with fidelity. Mr Price will get a good vote in Monessen as the majority of our citizens have declared their intentions of supporting him

WHAT's a politician without votes? What's a platform with the planks left out?

THE Jeannette Dispatch seems "Huffy." It's a shame with Robbins twittering.

HAVE you heard the story of the little boy crawling out of the cellar window when mama went to wash him?

THE big fight that is at present going on in Westmoreland county is giving Monessen a good chance to get on the map.

WE haven't heard anything about the enforcement of that new dog ordinance. Lots of the creatures now have their being on our streets and alleys.

"FOR want of air a man will die in five minutes" says a physical culture writer. That must be the reason those "hot air" artists carry a full supply along with them.

THE political situation in Westmoreland county is much wrought up. On June 2, we predict some of the greatest surprises that have ever visited the Republican ranks of this county. Just such an upheaval as will come through this campaign brings with it profitable results. After it is all over and the excitement and anxiety subside, the candidates who are nominated for offices feel that they owe more to the people.

Vote for John M. Hawk for Clerk of Courts.

Galien, Mich.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine. I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write. I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a tremble, but no pain. Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all housework. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

Trees That Form Islands.

In the course of great rivers, islands are generally formed by the stranding of trees, shrubs, plants and such things brought down by the current. In the Mackenzie river of Canada the whole process of island making in this way can be easily observed. Trees borne down from the banks by the undermining action of the current usually retain considerable mass of earth and stones entangled in their roots. They, therefore, readily sink, and by doing so form considerable shoals, which time converts into regular vegetable islands. Then a thicket of small willows covers the newly formed land and their fibrous roots serve to bind the whole firmly together. A peaty soil is formed by the gradual decay of the vegetation, including the trunks of the trees, and on this many new varieties of plants spring up. Sometimes the island clears its moorings and floats away down stream until it is again arrested by an obstacle, or it may become in a sense waterlogged and subside close to the bottom. In this latter case it often gets covered over with mud and sand, which form a new and more permanent land surface above it.

The Lobster's Birth Name.

"Did you ever see the name a lobster is born with?" asked a fish dealer the other day. "It is marked on his body. No? Well, I'll show you one."

The dealer took a live lobster out of a heap on the marble slab.

"Its name is Joe," the dealer said after he had inspected one of its legs. "Now, can you find it?"

The customer took the lobster gingerly by the back of the neck, where it could not reach his hand with its nippers. Turning it on its back so that the brown legs at its side flopped backward, a smooth streak half an inch long and nearly as wide was seen on the inside of the thigh. In this streak, like a mosaic, were short lines, as though some one had printed on it with indelible brown ink in backhand the characters J-O-E.

"Some lobsters are named Jim," the dealer said, "some Jack, others John, and I once clearly made out the name Julia."

A Compromise Indebtedness

(Original.)

Edward Trevor was graduated from a law school in June and went immediately to a western city that had grown from a village within a few years to practice his profession. Among those who befriended him and threw into his hands whatever practice he could control was John Ainsworth, a man who was supposed to be rich. Ainsworth died soon after Trevor made his acquaintance, and Trevor considered his going a great loss to himself.

Shortly after Ainsworth's funeral Trevor was sitting in his office wondering if he would ever get another case when a young lady in deep mourning came in. She was Dora, Mr. Ainsworth's daughter. By her father's death she had been left alone, being without mother or brother or sister.

"Good morning, Miss Ainsworth," said the young man, rising and offering her a seat. "I hope there is something I can do for you, considering your father's kindness to me."

"Oh, Mr. Trevor, I am in such trouble. In addition to being an orphan I am a pauper."

"My dear Miss Ainsworth, how can the heir to the Halliwell block be a pauper?"

"I am not the heir to the Halliwell block. A lawyer—I suppose you would call him a shyster—has produced a deed from Mr. Halliwell prior to the one he gave father."

Trevor was too astonished for a few minutes to give the girl any comfort. Then he asked:

"Was this deed offered before your father's death?"

"It was this largely that killed him."

"Would you like me to see if I can do anything for you?"

"Yes, only I have no money for lawyer's fees. The block was father's only property."

"Never mind that. Is Halliwell living?"

"I don't know. He went to the Rocky mountains after selling father the property. It was not worth much then. Father bought it to enable Mr. Halliwell to get away."

The result of this conversation was that Trevor found that he must prove the signature to the newly offered deed a forgery or Miss Ainsworth must lose her property. He had about a hundred dollars of what he had brought west with him, and on this he started out to the mountains to find Halliwell in order to get his testimony, chasing him from place to place till at a mining village in Nevada he found him, a broken down prospector. He had been in many a quarrel and in one of them had an arm so badly shattered that the surgeon who attended him was obliged to amputate it. Trevor promised to help him in case the suit was won, and the two started eastward.

Halliwell told Trevor that he had never made a deed to any one but Mr. Ainsworth, and any other deed was unquestionably a forgery. But Trevor had misgivings. He knew the reputation that Gibbs, the claimant, had brought with him from his former home for a very smart and unscrupulous rascal. His only hope was that Halliwell himself would pronounce the signature a forgery.

When Trevor returned and reported what he had done, Miss Ainsworth was very grateful and, not understanding such matters, hopeful. For the first time Trevor spoke without any enthusiasm as to winning the case.

At the trial, the preliminaries having been gone through with, Trevor called Halliwell and showed him the signature on the Ainsworth deed, which he identified as his own. Trevor next showed him the one on the Gibbs deed. The court and the spectators, who knew that the daughter of one of their most respected associates, who had done more than any other to build up their city, was to be made rich or a pauper by a word, sat breathless. Halliwell scrutinized the signature for fully five minutes before answering the question if he had written it; then, looking up, he said unhesitatingly.

"Yes."

All eyes were turned upon the young lawyer who had worked so hard for his benefactor's daughter and had failed. He was as calm as ever. Turning to the witness he asked:

"Mr. Halliwell, when did you lose your right arm?"

"About twelve years ago."

"Is your signature to this deed written with your right or with your left hand?"

"Did you ever sign papers with your left hand before losing your right arm?"

"No."

"That will do."

Trevor next called Gibbs and asked:

"On what date was your deed given?"

"It is dated Dec. 9, 1885."

"That was five years before Halliwell lost his right arm, and yet this deed is signed with his left hand."

Suddenly the blood forsook Gibbs' cheek. He had not known of Halliwell's loss of his arm. He had written him and copied the signature of the reply, and copied it so well that Halliwell had pronounced it his own. When Gibbs descended from the witness stand he was arrested for forgery, of which he was easily convicted.

When Miss Ainsworth called for the amount of her counsel fee she was surprised to receive one made out as follows:

To legal services, expenses, etc. $1,000,000
(Or, by way of compromise, one lovely girl. Dora Ainsworth.)

The bill was compromised.

Model Sickness.

The pretty girl had told the artist that she had posed before, and on the strength of that statement she got a job. She hadn't held the pose ten minutes before she turned deadly white and sank to the floor.

"Model sickness," said the experienced artist after she had gone. "I knew she was lying, for the first timers always get it. It is as well defined a complaint as seasickness and has to be treated the same way. It is a form of nausea and is caused as much by the nervous strain the new model is always under as by the unusual experience of standing in one position. I have had big, strong men, even negroes, go the same way. It is something every artist has to make allowances for, and only practice can cure it, although I know old models who still suffer from it, especially if they are in an awkward pose."—Exchange.

Some Words Beginning With H.

Most persons aspirate the initial letter of "humble" nowadays and write "a humble" just as they write "a humor" or "a humming bird." But there are very many who would not naturally sound an h in "humble," or in "heir," "hospital," "homage," or even "humor." Before the nineteenth century nobody did, though it is clear that the aspirate had become regular by "David Copperfield's" time, from the fact that Dickens harps on Uriah Heap's "'umble." The insistence on the h is comparatively modern; mediæval men not only said "abit" for "habit," but wrote it so and the Bible has "an Hebrew."

Literally Translated.

On visiting Ireland the great traveler Livingstone was much feted. In Dublin at a dinner party he happened to be placed next to a literary lady who was a very stout woman. She worried him greatly about the language of the savage cannibals among whom he had managed to live and wanted to know the sound of their language. He spoke a sentence of it to satisfy her, and she answered. "Being translated, what does that mean?" "It means," he replied, "there is great cutting on you."

Tobacco Penalties.

The Shah of Persia, in the seventeenth century, proclaimed that every soldier in whose possession tobacco was found should have his lips cut; while in the same century Massachusetts ordered that "no person shall take tobacco publicly, and any one shall pay one penny for every time he is convicted of taking tobacco in any place."

Nerve.

"Bigbee has a nerve."

"Why so?"

"I threatened to sue him for the $100 he owes me."

"Yes?"

"And he asked me to sue him for $200 and give him the other hundred."

Friends and Enemies.

Be assured that those will be thy worst enemies not to whom thou hast done evil, but who have done evil to thee. And those will be thy best friends not to whom thou hast done good, but who have done good to thee.—Lavater.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Simpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute Kidney trouble. Sold by The Avenue Drug Store.

RENT PAYS FOR LAND.

Fertile Sections of the Southwest, Where Land Sells for $15 and Rents for $2 per Acre.

One of the remarkable things about Eastern Arkansas and Northern Louisiana is the fact that cleared land rents for $5 per acre cash, and can be bought for $7.50 to $15 per acre. It costs from $6 to $10 an acre to clear it. Other improvements necessary are slight and inexpensive.

The soil is rich alluvial, or made. It produces a bale of cotton per acre, worth $45 to $60. This accounts for its high rental value. Other crops, such as corn, small grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits, thrive as well.

Alfalfa yields 4 to 6 cuttings, a ton to a cutting, and brings $10 to $16 per ton.

In other sections of these states, and in Texas as well, the rolling or hill-land is especially adapted to stock raising and fruit growing. Land is very cheap, $5 to $10 per acre; improved farms $10, $15 to $25 per acre.

The new White River country offers many opportunities for settlers. High, rolling, fine water—it is naturally adapted to stock and fruit raising. Can be bought as low as $3 per acre.

See this great country for yourself and pick out a location. Descriptive literature, with maps, free on request.

The Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain System Lines sell reduced rate round trip tickets on first and third Tuesdays of each month to points in the West and Southwest, good returning 21 days, with stop-overs. For descriptive literature, maps, time tables, etc., write to

The season of Indigestion is now at hand. Ring's Dyspepsa Tablets relieve indigestion and correct all stomach disorders. Sold by C. A. Light.

Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial effections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial effections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache, kidney and bladder troubles. Pine-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with ManZan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, pulling, palpitating and frowning. Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

For bloating, belching, indigestion, etc., eat a Ring's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals. Sold by C. A. Light.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

Salve! Salve! Spread the Salve, but let it be Pine Salve, natures remedy for cuts, burns, sores, etc. Sold by C. A. Light.

Diphtheria, sore throat croup. Instant relief, permanent cure. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

For headache, constipation, etc., Dade's Little Liver Pills are the best. They cleanse and tonic the liver. Sold by C. A. Light.

FIRST GAME WAS EASY.

Monessen Beats Fayette City 7 to 1.--Have Hot Game on Hand This Afternoon.

Monessen had an easy time disposing of the Fayette City ball artists yesterday and came dangerously near giving them a row of blanks. In the eight inning however the visitors squeezed in a run and prevented a shut out. Lee Vaughn's tossers showed up well, and will if they keep up yesterday's work give a good account of themselves. Kelly pitched a good game and was well supported, the work of Haywood a third, especially deserving commendation Thresher for Fayette City also pitched well but received poor support. Today at 3:30 Belle Vernon will be here and "our boys" will have to hustle as Frank Killen is slated to pitch for Belle Vernon. Haggerman will down the rubber for the locals. A good attendance is expected. Yesterday's score:

DON'T LIKE BASE BALL.

President Roosevelt Fails to Use Golden Pass Book Presented By Base Ball Magnates.

As yet President Roosevelt has not made use of the Golden Pass Book presented to him several weeks ago by the baseball magnates. Somehow he has never taken an interest in baseball, although he is fond of most sports, and even the extraordinary efforts that have been made this year to secure his attendance at a game, have not had the expected results.

Just now the President is deeply interested in tennis and seems to prefer this form of exercise in fine weather to walking or riding in the country, as he frequently does on rainy days. For the last fortnight the President has played almost daily on the fine tennis court back of the executive offices in the White House grounds His companions in the games are usually some of the members of his family while at other times he plays with the French Ambassador, Commissioner of Commerce and Labor, Garfield and Mr. Pinchot, the goverment forester. The President always prefers playing doubles at tennis.

New Order issued.

The Fourth Assistant Postmaster General has issued an order providing that after July 1 next, rural delivery carriers, when making their trips, will visit and examine only those boxes for which they have mail for delivery and those on which the signals are displayed to indicate that there is mail for dispatch. Those patrons who are now maintaining mail boxes on which there are no signals will be required to procure some sort of device which will serve as a signal to carriers. By this new arrangement it is expected that the delivery and collection of mail along rural free delivery routes will be greatly facilitated.
